

Police History Talks
Council Chamber, County Hall

Talks are free and places will be allocated on a first come first served basis.

11.25 -11.30 Opening Comments

11.30 – 12.00 The History of the Hertfordshire Constabulary

How the Constabulary came into being and key developments throughout its 175 year history. (D/Sgt Andy Wiseman)

12.15 – 12.45 The Constables Who Went Off To War 1914 – 1918

A brief look at some of the individuals of the Hertfordshire Constabulary who fought in the Great War. (Paul Watts)

1.00 – 1.30 On The Beat 1914-1918

Tales of policing on the home front during the Great War. (Terry Cox)

1.45 – 2.15 Conserving and Sharing Police Records at Hertfordshire Archives & Local Studies

How HALS has worked with Herts Constabulary and Rhodes Museum to preserve, digitise and make accessible historic police records. (Julie Gregson and Claire Ramsay)

2.30 – 3.00 The Fox Twins of Stevenage

Meet Albert and Ebenezer Fox, the terrible twosome who managed to clock up over 160 convictions between them! (Nik Pringle)

Police Records, Photographs and Memorabilia
Hertfordshire Archives & Local Studies, Register Office Block

1.00 – 3.00 Displays of original police records, mystery objects from policing days gone by and displays of historic photographs.

Explore the police history website, www.hertspastpolicing.org.uk

Outdoor Displays and Activities
Carpark in front of County Hall

11.00 – 3.00 Vintage and modern police cars, Herts Fire & Rescue, children's activities, including dressing up, finger-printing and more!